ROUTE DESCRIPTION

The walk starts at Info Office 't Zand (Concert Hall). If you come by train, cross the station square diagonally left. There is also an Information office inside the station building. Then cross Buiten Begijnenvest and Costmeers underground parking building. By the way, there is an accessible toilet 3 inside this building. Continue straight ahead on 't Zand and then take the first street on your right: the Zuidzandstraat. Continue to walk on the right-hand side. A little further on turn right into Sint-Salvatorskerkhof. Cross the street for you to visit the wheelchair-friendly St. Salvator Cathedral 1. At the end, cross the street and turn left, still in St. Salvatorskerkhof. It is recommended to walk on the right. Then turn right into the Heilige-Geeststraat. Stay on the right and also turn right at the end into the Mariastraat. A bit further down the Mariastraat you can visit the St. John's Hospital 3. In front of the Church of Our Lady 2, turn right through the gate. It will take you to the Old St. John site. Immediately take a right turn to follow a loop around the site. A large part of this loop is on rounded cobblestones. At the end of the loop, there is a somewhat steep slope. If you want to avoid the rounded cobblestones, you can skip this loop. An accessible toilet 4 is available at this site. The space is narrow for wheelchair users. Leave the Old St. John site through the same gate towards the Mariastraat. Cross the street there. The curb is 3 cm high here. Turn left. You can now visit the Church of Our Lady 4. This street is gently sloping and the cobbles are not in good condition. The Bruges Beer Museum 7 is on your left but is not wheelchair accessible. You will now arrive at the Burg, where you turn right immediately. In the right corner you will find the famous Basilica of the Holy Blood 8. A little more to the left is the beautiful town hall 9. The museum and city archives Liberty of Bruges 10 can be found on the square. Immediately after the town hall, turn right under a gate into the Blinde Ezelstraat. At the end you can see the Vismarkt, where you can buy fresh seafood every morning from Wednesday to Saturday. Once across the water, turn right and you will arrive at Huidenvettersplein, a lively square full of terraces. Cross the square and you may need some help on the steeper slope towards the Rozenhoedkaai. Turn right into the Oude Burg. There you have two options:

- Stay on the left side of the street and pass a narrow stretch of 70 cm wide.
- Cross over via a curb of approximately 4 cm high. Then you can cross the street diagonally past the bicycle rack. Or you can also cross diagonally towards City Hall further on, at the kartuizerijnenstraat.

 Either way, you have to turn left further down through a gate under the building of the City Hall (Stadshallen) 5. Now you arrive in the courtyard, from which you immediately have a nice view of the Berry, which is not wheelchair accessible. You will find an accessible toilet 5 in the courtyard. Cross the courtyard to arrive on the world famous Market square over a curb of 3 cm. Cross the Market diagonally to the right to get to the Historium 6. The same building also houses a tourist information office and an accessible toilet 6. When leaving the building, go left and then continue to walk on the left side of the Nieuwe Gentweg. Cross over via a small curb of At the end of Groeninge you arrive at the ramp. Leave the Beguinage via the same route and turn right immediately behind the gate. Then follow the path along the water. Turn right at the end. You may need some help there on a slope. Follow the path along the water again and turn left at the end. If you cross back to the left, you will arrive at Bruges Train Station. It contains 2 accessible toilets 1 and 2. If you want to return to 't Zand, cross over to the right and take the path through the Albert I-park. somewhat uneven in some parts, which may be made of large flat stones. This path leads to 't Zand. The path is made of large flat stones, which may be somewhat uneven in some parts. Cross the street with your back to the information office using the crosswalk on rounded cobblestones. Turn left past the Stevinglein. Then walk on the right side of the square. It is slightly sloping and the cobbles are not always in good condition. Still on the square, turn right into an alley: the Loppemstraat. At the end of the Loppemstraat you have to turn left into the Oude Burg. There you have two options:

- Stay on the left side of the street and pass a narrow stretch of 70 cm wide.
- Cross over via a curb of approximately 4 cm high. Then you can cross the street diagonally past the bicycle rack. Or you can also cross diagonally towards City Hall further on, at the kartuizerijnenstraat.

 Either way, you have to turn left further down through a gate under the building of the City Hall (Stadshallen) 5. Now you arrive in the courtyard, from which you immediately have a nice view of the Berry, which is not wheelchair accessible. You will find an accessible toilet 5 in the courtyard. Cross the courtyard to arrive on the world famous Market square over a curb of 3 cm. Cross the Market diagonally to the right to get to the Historium 6. The same building also houses a tourist information office and an accessible toilet 6. When leaving the building, go left and then continue to walk on the left side of the Nieuwe Gentweg. Cross over via a small curb of At the end of Groeninge you arrive at the ramp. Leave the Beguinage via the same route and turn right immediately behind the gate. Then follow the path along the water. Turn right at the end. You may need some help there on a slope. Follow the path along the water again and turn left at the end. If you cross back to the left, you will arrive at Bruges Train Station. It contains 2 accessible toilets 1 and 2. If you want to return to 't Zand, cross over to the right and take the path through the Albert I-park.

A little further on, turn left into the Breidelstraat. This street is gently sloping and the cobbles are not in good condition. The Bruges Beer Museum 7 is on your left but is not wheelchair accessible. You will now arrive at the Burg, where you turn right immediately. In the right corner you will find the famous Basilica of the Holy Blood 8. A little more to the left is the beautiful town hall 9. The museum and city archives Liberty of Bruges 10 can be found on the square. Immediately after the town hall, turn right under a gate into the Blinde Ezelstraat.
