Permekemuseum Jabbeke

Constant Permeke, the most famous Flemish expressionist painter, lived and worked in Jabbeke for more than twenty years. His abode was the The Four Winds, a striking villa commissioned by the artist himself and built, for its time, in extremely modern design. Today it is the location of the Permeke Museum, where the visitor can wander around the artist's living quarters as well as his garden and former studios. It is without a doubt the place par excellence to admire in total peace and quiet Permeke's collection of his spellbinding works.
