Concertgebouw (Concert Hall)

This international music and art centre is one of the 1001 buildings you must see before you die. It is a place that offers the very best in contemporary dance and classical music. The impressive Concert Auditorium (1,289 seats) and intimate Chamber Music Hall (322 seats) are famed for their excellent acoustics. In the Concert Hall you can also admire various contemporary works of art. More info: www.concertgebouw.be. Discover the music & dance program: <https://www.concertgebouw.be/en/en-programm>.

wegbeschrijving

Train and bus: The Concertgebouw is in the Koning Albertpark, which is a ten-minute walk from the train station. A number of De Lijn buses stop at 't Zand bus station next to the Concertgebouw. Bicycle: There is a free underground bicycle park underneath 't Zand. The entrance is next to the Concertgebouw, towards Sint-Jan in de Meers. Car: From the E40 motorway take exit 8 for Brugge. Stay on the N31 and take the exit for 'Brugge Centrum - Waggelwater - AZ Sint-Jan'. Continue straight on until you see the exit for the underground car park 'Centrum-'t Zand', which is the car park (with parking fees) under the Concertgebouw. Alternatively, 'Centrum-Station' is another car park (with parking fees) located a 10-minute walk from the Concertgebouw, on the city centre side of the train station. If you park here, you can show your parking ticket to make free use of bus transport to and from the Concertgebouw (maximum of four people per vehicle).

Concertgebouw (Concert Hall) is een filmlocatie.
